

Why we're a trusted adviser

Every Wisdom Well Partners is motivated by making a difference to the country's most exciting start-ups and our rigorous recruitment process ensures you can be confident that you are getting the skills and knowledge you need.

Our Partners currently include:

- Previous Partners at the big four audit firms – PwC, Deloitte, KPMG and Ernst & Young
- Previous CFO at Xerox
- Previous Partners from IBM
- Previous Partners from magic circle law firms, including Allen & Overy

Case study

Wisdom Well matched a new venture that makes delicious chutneys from surplus fruit and vegetables, with an experienced HR practitioner. The firm wanted to expand but first needed to establish basic HR processes. Their Wisdom Well Partners set-up a payroll system and put together job descriptions for the new roles. This enabled the firm to hire its first paid employees, expanding their production and boosting their business.

Got a challenge and struggling to get the right skills?

Get in touch with Wisdom Well

We meet with you to discuss your project requirements

We agree the project and number of days work

You decide which Partner is the right match for you

We match you with at least two suitable Partners

You get expert, hands-on support that makes a big difference

How it works

The results we deliver

- New products launched
- New staff hired
- Enhanced profit
- Reduced costs
- Increased productivity
- Employment best practice consistent with existing legislation
- High performance leadership
- Cutting-edge ICT and digital services
- Effective communication with customers and stakeholders

